THE INVALID'S FRIEND.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Nervous Disorders.

What is more fearful than a breaking down of the nervous system? To be excitable or nervous in a small degree is most distressing; for where can a remedy be found? Here is one:—Drink but little wine, beer or spirits, or far better, abstain from them altogether; do not take coffee—weak tea is preferable; get all the fresh air you can; take three or four of these Pills every night; eat plenty of solids, and avoid the use of slops. If these golden rules are followed, you will be happy in mind, strong in body, and forget you have any nerves.

Mothers and Daughters.

If there is one thing more than another for which these Pills are so famous it is their purifying properties, especially their power of cleansing the blood from all impurities, and removing dangerous, and renewing suspended secretions. Universally adopted as the one grand remedy for female complaints, these Pills never fail, never weaken the system, and always bring about what is required.

Disorders of the Kidneys.

In all diseases affecting these organs, whether they secrete too much or too little water; or whether they are afflicted with stone or gravel or with aches and pains settled in the loins over the region of the kidneys, these Pills should be taken according to the printed directions, and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bed time. This treatment will give almost immediate relief after all other means have failed.

The Stomach out of Order.

No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these Pills; they remove all acidity, occasioned either by intemperance or improper diet. They reach the liver, and reduce it to a healthy action; they are wonderfully efficacious in cases of spasms—in fact they never fail in curing all disorders of liver & stomach.

Bronchitis, Diphtheria, Coughs, Colds.

No diseases are more frequent, few more dangerous, than affections of the respiratory organs. The first symptoms of disordered action may always be removed by Holloway's renowned Pills. They quickly remedy any temporary stagnation of blood, relieve any over-gorged veins, moderate the hurried breathing and enable the windpipe and lungs to perform their functions with ease and regularity. These Pills, by their purifying powers, cleanse the blood from all impurities, and thus fortify the system against consumption, asthma, and other pulmonary complaints.

Debilitated Constitutions.

In cases of debility, languor and nervousness, generated by excess of any kind, whether mental or physical, the effect of these Pills is in the highest degree bracing, renovating and restorative. They drive from the system the morbid cause of disease, re-establish the digestion, regulate all the secretions, brace the neu-vous system, raise the patient's spirits, and bring back the frame to its pristine health and vigour.

Biliousness, Loss of Appetite, Headache and Lowness of Spirits.

These Pills effect a truly wonderful change in debilitated constitutions; they create a healthy appetite, correct indigestion, remove excess of bile, and overcome giddiness, headache, and palpitation of the heart.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:—

Ague	Female Irregu- larities	Retention of Urine
Asthma	Fever of all kinds	Scrofula, or King's Evil
Bilious Complaints	Fits	Stomach Stone and Gravel
Blotches on the skin	Gout	Secondary Symp- toms
Bowel Complaints	Head-ache	Tie Douleurux
Colic	Indigestion	Tumours
Constipation of the Bowel	Inflammation	Ulcers
Consumption	Jaundice	Venerable Affections
Debility	Liver Com- plaints	Worms of all kinds
Dropsy	Lumbago	Weakness, from whatever cause, &c., &c.
Dysentery	Piles
Erysipelas	Rheumatism

NEW WESTMINSTER, TUESDAY, FEB. 28, 1865.

THE ESTIMATES.

Even did we imagine ourselves possessed of the power, it would be too late now to attempt to influence the Executive in framing the Estimates which the Hon. Colonial Secretary, in the capacity of Chancellor of the Exchequer, has promised to submit to the Legislature on Thursday. There are several points respecting which no little solicitude is felt by the public. Amongst the more important of these still enshrouded in Executive mystery may be mentioned the construction of a road from this city, connecting with the road systems of the interior; the completion of that link between Alexandria and Quesnelmouth; the exploring and opening of trail communication with Kootenay and the Big Bend of the Columbia River, and the erection of at least what might be the nucleus of a suite of public buildings in the capital. It is earnestly to be hoped that these objects, together with many others, will have a place in the Estimates; and if they have not, it will devolve upon the Legislative Council to remedy the defect by a supplemental list. So far as explorations and trail-making, consequent upon the recent discovery of rich diggings on the southern rim of the colony, are concerned, we feel very little anxiety, inasmuch as a knowledge of the earnest consideration the Governor has given the subject, and the intimation given by the Hon. Colonial Secretary, on Friday, that a sum would appear in the Estimates for that purpose, afford a sufficient guarantee that these particular interests will not be overlooked; and we have every reason to believe that the action which the Government is prepared to take with a view to opening up early communication with that most attractive section of country will be commensurate with the importance of the object sought to be accomplished. This is not the first time we have pointed out the necessity that exists for having the arterial highway of the country terminate at the seaport, instead of, as now, one hundred miles in the interior. But the winter which is now breaking up has added pungency, so to speak, to the arguments hitherto used in advocating this work. We have witnessed, during the past winter, almost a total suspension of communication with the interior for three consecutive months; and the country is indebted to the public spirited enterprise of the gentlemen carrying on the Express business of the colony for what little communication has been kept up. We say "public spirited enterprise" because we are fully aware that Express connection with the interior has, during this winter, been maintained at considerable pecuniary loss. But are the political, social and commercial interests of British Columbia to be left any longer dependent upon the quasi-benevolent exertions of two or three gentlemen? Is connection with the great interior to be reduced to the uncertain tenure of a canoe or the back of a native, for several months every year? We think the Government will decide that it is not—that the great road system which has already cost so much, and of which the colony may justly feel proud, although we have undoubtedly paid dearly for it, in order to be complete, must have its terminus here. The growing interests of the interior demand it. We might, did space permit, show the various interests which are at stake, agricultural, commercial and telegraphic; but these points are so well known to the public already, and must be so impressed upon the minds of our legislators, that to enter into details would be little better than a waste of time.

The British Columbian.

NEW WESTMINSTER, TUESDAY, FEB. 28, 1865.

News from the Interior.

The str. Hope returned from Harrisonmouth on Saturday, bringing a number of passengers, amongst whom were Mr. Marston and Mr. Wilton, of Lytton. These gentlemen inform us that although there is a great depth of snow in some places between Lytton and Yale yet foot travelling is good and the road has sustained no injury from slides.

Mr. Spence's bridge across the Thompson was about completed, and it was his intention to open it for traffic on the 28th (to-day). It is described as an excellent piece of work, and the plan of building upon piles appears to answer admirably.

Horned cattle had suffered grievously upon the winter ranges of the Bonaparte, Mr. York having lost 65 out of his drove of 100 head. Horses and mules have, however, wintered tolerably well.

There is an unusual dearth of news in the interior, and business is dull everywhere. There is a good deal of mining going on upon the bars of the Fraser, but we are without any definite information as to the result.

IN BAD TASTE.—We regret to observe a disposition on the part of our local contemporary unnecessarily to parade before the public a matter brought before one of our petty courts last week by the Customs authorities. Not content with giving a lengthy notice in the usual course, he devotes a long leader to the subject, in which he starts out with a conclusion upon the Collector of Customs and concludes with a coarse insult. We are not going to enter upon the merits of a case which cannot possibly possess much interest to the public, and by the discussion of which no public end can be gained. The Collector of Customs is abundantly able to manage the affairs of his own department, while the gentleman who has been so unnecessarily dragged into notoriety by an indiscreet "papering" has neither suffered in public estimation nor, we presume, in his own. It is at all times the duty of the journalist to give publicity to any matter falling legitimately within his sphere when the ends of justice or the rights of the public are likely to be promoted thereby; but we cannot see the object of our contemporary in giving such unusual prominence to the trifling matter referred to.

BACK AGAIN.—We have just experienced, one of those sudden changes to which the weather is sometimes subject in these parts. Up till Saturday evening the weather was delightful, the sun shining out, and the willow buds swelling under its genial rays, leading one to hope that bleak winter had taken a final leave. It was not, therefore, without a feeling of dismay that the eye beheld our hoary friend peeping in again at the window on Sunday morning. Between Saturday and Monday snow fell to a depth of four inches.

STEAMERS.—The monotony of an unusually dull and protracted winter is being relieved by the steamers now visiting our waters. Two new steamers entering the harbor on Saturday were rather an unusual event. The Diana, just completed by Capt. Tom Wright, came steaming along on Saturday morning, and was the more welcome as the bearer of an Eastern mail, which might otherwise have remained at Victoria till Wednesday. Shortly after noon she took the Governor and suite on board, and steamed down to the mouth to meet the smart little steamer Sir James Douglas, on her way up with His Excellency Governor Kennedy and family, and Commander Verney, R. N., who have come up in order to be present at the Legislative fête this evening. The Sir James Douglas left again for Victoria yesterday morning. The Diana also left for Victoria on Sunday morning.

THE LEGISLATIVE FETE.—We understand upwards of 200 invitations have been issued for the ball given by the members of the Legislative Council, and which comes off at the Council Chamber this evening. The str. Enterprise is to arrive to-day with the Victoria guests. We understand she will leave again to-morrow.

PROGRESS.—Our infantile contemporary has followed the good example we set him, and now issues three times a week, having very properly chosen Monday, Wednesday and Friday, so that the city, between the two papers, now practically enjoys all the advantages of a daily paper.

SHIPPING.—On Saturday the schooner Beaver arrived, and is taking in a cargo of lumber at the B. C. Mill Co.'s mills; on Sunday the sloop Leonide arrived from Victoria with a general cargo for the north-west coast trade; on Monday the schooner Thornion arrived, and will take a cargo of lumber from the B. C. Mill Co.'s mills; on Monday the sloop C. S. Tibbals arrived from Port Townsend, bringing Capt. Moore and family.

CUSTOMS RECEIPTS for week ending February 25th, 1865.—Duties, £692 13 8; harbor dues, £10 15; head money, £25 12; tonnage dues, 9s. Total, £729 9 8. Number of passengers entering during same period, 128.

THE STEAMER "HOPE" returned from Harrisonmouth on Saturday, having discharged her cargo there. She left again with a full freight on Sunday morning. The Hope appears to be having a good time of it, notwithstanding all her recent troubles.

Municipal Council.

Town Hall, February 27th, 1865.

Members present, the President (Mr. Clarkson), and Councillors Armstrong, Ferris, Robson, Tilley and Wyllie.

Minutes of last meeting read and confirmed. The following communication from the Hon. Colonial Secretary was read:—

COLONIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
New Westminster, Feb. 27th, 1865.

Sir,—I am directed by the Governor to request that you will inform me whether it is still the wish of the Municipal Council, that the enclosed petition, which was forwarded by you to His Excellency on the 21st November last, should be laid before the Legislative Council.

It is His Excellency's intention to place on the Estimates a considerable sum to be devoted to the repairing and putting in good order the main thoroughfares of this city, and thus enable the Council to devote the local taxation to streets which may be considered of local importance merely.

I have the honor to be, &c.,
ARTHUR N. BLAIR.

Moved by Coun. Robson, seconded by Coun. Armstrong, and Resolved, That the President reply to the communication from His Excellency the Governor, informing him that in view of the proposal to make provision for constructing and improving the main thoroughfares of this city, the Council deem it unnecessary that the memorial of the 21st November be placed before the Legislative Council.

Moved by Coun. Ferris, seconded by Coun. Armstrong, and Resolved, That the Clerk be instructed to ascertain the expense of printing the proposed new Constitution.

On motion of Coun. Ferris, the Board of Works was instructed to have the ditches at the head of Douglas street opened up.

An account from Mr. Handy for $9 was referred to the President for settlement. The Council then adjourned.

Yale versus Douglas.

To the Editor of the British Columbian.

Sir,—My attention has just been called to a letter in the columns of your local contemporary, and dated Douglas, February 11th, 1865, in which the writer asserts that during the four years ending last fall the road tolls collected at that town amounted to £152,000 sterling, and that from that source has been derived about one-fifth of the entire revenue of the colony, and remarks that this astounding result has been attained without hardly a dollar having been expended in local improvements. These statements, of course, be read with extreme surprise by those who are at all aware of their utter untruthfulness. I have not the data which would enable me to give the correct figures; but returns made by the Government, in pursuance of a resolution moved by their own member, Mr. Holbrook, will at least suffice to show the utter disregard of truth displayed by the writer of the letter alluded to. From these returns I obtain the following:—"Statement of the Road Tolls received at Douglas and Yale, also an account of the expenditure on the roads during the year 1864:—Douglas, Road Tolls £6443 0 10; amount expended upon road, £5709 19 8. Yale, Road Tolls £3721 7 8; amount expended upon road, £2152 4 3. Thus it will be seen that while Yale paid more revenue than Douglas by about 40 per cent., less than 25 per cent. of it was expended upon local improvements, whereas in the case of Douglas very nearly as much was spent upon the road as the tolls amounted to; leaving only £433 1 2 to go into the general revenue. To adopt the style of "Fido"—"You bye-way men and Douglas croakers take notice." If the Douglas-Lillooet route is to stand up in competition with the Yale-Lytton route it must not be upon the false structure sought to be raised by "Fido." Such reckless statements coming under the eye of the Legislative Councilors, at a time, too, when they had the returns before them, cannot but damage the route.

Yours, &c.,
YALEITE.

To the Editor of the British Columbian.

Sir,—In this morning's issue of the North Pacific Times there is an article headed "Manners and Customs," which for logic and arguments is eminently characteristic of that journal. As an example I will quote his leading sentences.

1st, "We believe the Collector of Customs is a gentleman eminently qualified for the position he holds." &c., &c., &c.

2nd, "We are well aware that in the case we write of he was justified by law in the course he took." &c., &c., &c.

3rd, "Our object, &c., &c., is not to defend the action of Mr. Maunsell so much as to endeavor to show that circumstances may arise in which an official requires to be guided as much by tact as by routine, and when a strict enforcement of the latter is as much a breach of good manners, and gentlemanly feeling as a sole reliance on the former (tact) would be an indication of a want of judgment."

I do not intend to follow the Editor through his lengthy title tattle, and I but echo the public sentiment in fully endorsing the first proposition relating to Mr. Hamk.

The second is fully endorsed by the Editor himself. But in the third there occurs that word which all great commanders, statesmen and politicians of every degree, and I suppose Editors too, use in profusion when seeking to advance a favorite idea with the public—"tact." Stand thou forth and hear what the Editor of the North Pacific Times says about you. He says, "a sole reliance on tact would be an indication of want of judgment." Surely he must have been depending solely on you when he continues to perpetuate what he calls a "public scandal," a circumstance which would have been buried in oblivion but for his industry, and perseverance in keeping the matter before the public. His friends who are interested in this matter must feel obliged to him.

The Editor says, Capt. Monat, in the Enterprise, once went to the Camp without a permit, but Capt. Monat apologized and was forgiven; and if Mr. Maunsell had done the same he too would have escaped. And then he asks, what right the Collector has to accept an apology when he is aware of an infraction of the law.

Ah! the Editor must have too much reliance on tact, which betrays a want of judgment, else he would not again be dragging Mr. Maunsell forth as having been guilty of an infraction of the law, and to parody his own words:—

"Altogether we cannot but consider the whole defence as frivolous, but quite worthy of a gentleman occupying the Editor's position. There can be no question about its "taste," for that was very bad, when the apparent motive was to defend a gentleman against his will.

The press is not always intended to annoy those whose position makes them worth notice, and its interests are not advantaged by making public what would be much better consigned to oblivion.

There are some persons, consisting of those who have no stake in the country, and whose judgment is rather confused by a superabundance of tact, who will always be ready and willing to injure their friends by attempting to defend them.

If the Editor desired to gain popularity amongst the powers that be he certainly tried hard, but went the wrong way about it.

If the Editor is ambitious of ever stretching his legs under the mahogany in a certain place he will discard tact, and not insult his friends by over officiousness.

By so doing he may, if he so wishes, become even a respectable Editor, by not exposing his friends to an unenviable notoriety, because he wants to beat a retreat out of a false position.

Yours truly,
BRADEN.

New Westminster, February 27th, 1865.

British Columbia and the Federation.

We give the following extracts from a letter received by the last mail:—

Quebec, January, 21st, 1865.

* * *—Here we are away in this frigid region with mercury ranging from 22 to 30 degrees below zero. And yet we have had some warm times, politically speaking. Our Yankee neighbours appear disposed to give us no end of trouble, notwithstanding that our Government has done everything it could consistent with an honorable neutrality. The parliament opened on the 19th and in the "speech from the throne" His Excellency said that a measure would be laid before the House, "arming the Executive with stronger powers than it now possessed, for the purpose of dealing with refugees."

Taking this in connection with the alacrity displayed in re-arresting the St. Albans raiders, let loose by Corssoll's unfortunate decision, and in guarding the frontier, I think the Federal Government ought to be satisfied. The rigid enforcement of the passport order is doing incalculable mischief, and has resulted in the almost entire suspension of intercourse between the two countries, at some points.

The Hon. George Brown, just now the greatest man in British America—politically, of course—has returned from England, where he was sent as plenipotentiary-extraordinary to treat with the Imperial authorities respecting things in general and federation in particular. I give the following extract from a letter of the London correspondent of the New York Independent, just to show you away off there, what a big Canadian we have. Here it is:—"He (i.e., Geo. Brown) finds the English Cabinet entirely sympathetic with him on this great question; and, strangely enough, even those who support the political separation of the Northern and Southern States, are agreed as to the expediency of uniting the British colonies under one Government. Mr. Brown has been received with extraordinary distinction by all parties in this country. He was overwhelmed with calls and invitations; and hundreds of influential persons, who were perfect strangers to him, have taken means to express their sympathy with his mission. He left London to-day on a visit to Lord Palmerston at Broadlands."

The session just opened is chiefly interesting as that which will decide the fate of the grandest scheme of the age. I mean the federation which contemplates the creation of a young empire on what is British of this continent, by amalgamating all the small and isolated peoples now scattered over it. The Hon. Malcolm Cameron, who, by the way, is never tired talking about British Columbia, delivered an excellent lecture to a very large and intellectual audience in this city, the other evening. He dwelt much upon your colonies, and was very interesting when viewing the great subject from a New Westminster standpoint.

The hon. lecturer took from his pocket a letter which he said he had that day received from Mr. Cormack of your city, and from which he read the following passage, which was received with enthusiastic applause by the audience:—"The organization of the British North American Federation is, in my opinion, the most important event, next to that of the American revolution, on the North American continent. We must endeavor to unite British Columbia as soon as possible. Inter-oceanic telegraphs and railroads will bring us near our Canadian brethren ere long; and we in British Columbia have longed for sympathy and union with other men besides those in Downing Street."

Should the Federation scheme be carried out—of which I think there is little doubt—that great country watered by the Saskatchewan and Athabasca Rivers will quickly be filled up, and thus you and we may hope to join hands at the Rocky Mountains.

You will see by the papers that Recorder Dugan, of Toronto, has committed the man Bennett G. Burley, as being connected with the affair of the Philo Parsons, which caused so much interest some time ago. Burley now awaits the action of the Governor-General, upon whom it devolves to hand the culprit over to the American authorities, under the Extradition Treaty.

The British Government on the projected Union of the Provinces.

[From the "Globe."] DOWNING STREET, 3rd December, 1864.

MY LORD.—Her Majesty's Government have received with the most cordial satisfaction Your Lordship's despatch of the 7th ultimo, transmitting for their consideration the Resolutions adopted by the representatives of the several Provinces of British North America, which were assembled at Quebec.

With the sanction of the Crown, and upon the invitation of the Governor-General, men of every Province, chosen by the respective Lieutenant-Governors without distinction of party, assembled to consider questions of the utmost interest to every subject of the Queen, of whatever race or faith, resident in those Provinces, and have arrived at a conclusion destined to exercise a most important influence upon the future welfare of the whole community.

Animated by the warmest sentiments of loyalty and devotion to their Sovereign, earnestly desirous to secure for their posterity throughout all future time the advantages which they enjoy as subjects of the British Crown—steadfastly attached to the institutions under which they live, they have conducted their deliberations with patient sagacity, and have arrived at unanimous conclusions on questions involving many difficulties, and calculated, under less favorable auspices to have given rise to many differences of opinion.

Such an event is in the highest degree honorable to those who have taken part in these deliberations. It must inspire confidence in the men by whose judgement and temper this result has been attained, and will remain on record as an evidence of the salutary influence exercised by the institutions under which these qualities have been so signally developed.

Her Majesty's Government have given to your Despatch and to the Resolutions of the Conference, their most deliberate consideration. They have regarded them as a whole, and as having been designed by those who have framed them, to establish a complete and perfect union of the whole into one Government as the circumstances of the case and a due consideration of existing interests, would admit. They accept them, therefore as being, in the deliberate judgment of those best qualified to decide upon the subject, the best framework of a measure to be passed by the Imperial Parliament for attaining that most desirable result.

The point of principal importance to the practical well-working of the scheme, is the accurate determination of the limits between the authority of the Central and that of the Local Legislatures in their relation to each other. It has not been possible to exclude from the Resolutions some provisions which appear to be less consistent than might, perhaps, have been desired with the simplicity and unity of the system. But, upon the whole, it appears to Her Majesty's Government that precautions have been taken which are obviously intended to secure to the Central Government the means to affect action throughout the several Provinces; and to guard against those evils which must inevitably arise if any doubts were permitted to exist as to the respective limits of Central and Local authority.

They are glad to observe that although large powers of legislation are intended to be vested in local bodies yet the principle of central control has been steadily kept in view. The importance of this principle cannot be overrated. Its maintenance is essential to the practical efficiency of the system, and to its harmonious operation both in the general administration and in the governments of the several Provinces. A very important part of this subject is the expense which may attend the working of the central and the local Governments. Her Majesty's Government cannot but express the earnest hope that the arrangements which may be adopted in this respect may not be of such a nature as to increase, at least in any considerable degree, the whole expenditure, or to make any material addition to the taxation and thereby retard the internal industry or tend to impose new burdens on the commerce of the country.

Her Majesty's Government are anxious to lose no time in conveying to you their general approval of the proceedings of the Conference. There are, however, two provisions of great importance which seem to require revision. The first of these is the provision contained in the 44th resolution with respect to the exercise of the prerogative of pardon. It appears to Her Majesty's Government that this duty belongs to the representative of the Sovereign, and could not with propriety be devolved upon the Lieutenant-Governors, who will, under the present scheme, be appointed not directly by the Crown, but by the Central Government of the United Provinces.

The second point which Her Majesty's Government desire should be reconsidered is the Constitution of the Legislative Council. They appreciate the considerations which have influenced the Conference in determining the mode in which this body so important to the Constitution of the Legislature, should be composed. But it appears to them to require further consideration whether, if the members be appointed for life and their number be fixed, there will be any sufficient means of restoring harmony between the Legislative Council and the popular assembly, if it shall ever unfortunately happen that a decided difference of opinion shall arise between them.

These two points relating to the prerogative of the Crown, and to the constitution of the Upper Chamber, have appeared to require distinct and separate notice. Questions of minor consequence, and matters of detailed arrangement, may properly be reserved for a future time, when the provisions of the bill intended to be submitted to the Imperial Parliament shall come under consideration. Her Majesty's Government anticipate no serious difficulty in this part of the case, since the resolutions will generally be found sufficiently explicit to guide those who will be entrusted with the preparation of the bill. It appears to them, therefore, that you should now take immediate measures, in concert with the Lieutenant-Governors of the several Provinces, for submitting to the respective Legislatures this project of the Conference, and if, as I hope, you are able to report that these Legislatures sanction and adopt the scheme, Her Majesty's Government will render you all the assistance in their power for carrying it into effect.

It will probably be found to be the most convenient course that, in concert with Lieutenant-Governors, you should select a deputation of the persons best qualified to proceed to this country, that they may be present during the preparation of the bill, and give to Her Majesty's Government the benefit of their counsel upon any questions which may arise during the passage of the measure through the two Houses of Parliament.

I have, &c.,
E. CARDWELL.

ALL CURES MADE EASY!!
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Bad Legs, Ulcerous Sores, Bad Breasts and Old Wounds.
No description of wound, sore, or ulcer can resist the healing properties of this excellent Ointment. The worst cases readily assume a healthy appearance when ever this medicine is applied; sound flesh springs up from the bottom of the wound, inflammation of the surrounding skin is arrested, and a complete and permanent cure quickly follows the use of the Ointment.

Piles, Fistulas and Internal Inflammation.
These distressing and weakening diseases may with certainty be cured by the anointers themselves, if they will use Holloway's Ointment, and closely attend to the printed instructions. It should be well rubbed upon the neighbouring parts, when all obnoxious matter will be removed. A poultice of bread and water may sometimes be applied at bed time with advantage; and most scrupulous cleanliness must be observed. If those who read this paragraph will bring it under the notice of such of their acquaintances whom it may concern, they will render a service that will never be forgotten, as cure is certain.

Rheumatism, Gout & Neuralgia.
Nothing has the power of reducing inflammation and subduing pain in these complaints in the same degree as Holloway's cooling Ointment and purifying Pills. When used simultaneously they drive all inflammation and depravities from the system, subdue and remove all enlargement of the joints, and leave the sinews and muscles lax and uncontracted. A cure may always be effected, even under the worst circumstances, if the use of these medicines be persevered in.

Eruptions, Scald Head, Ringworm & other Skin Diseases.
After fomentation with warm water, utmost relief and speediest cure can be readily obtained in all complaints affecting the skin and joints, by the simultaneous use of the Ointment and Pills. But it must be remembered that nearly all skin diseases indicate the depravity of the blood, and derangement of the liver and stomach, consequently, in many cases, time is required to purify the blood, which will be effected by a judicious use of the Pills. The general health will be readily improved, although the eruption may be driven out more freely than before, and which should not be promoted; perseverance is necessary.

Sore Throats, Diphtheria, Quinsy, Mumps & all other Derangements of the Throat.
On the appearance of any of these maladies the Ointment should be well rubbed at least three times a day upon the neck and upper part of the chest, so as to penetrate to the glands, as salt is forced into meat; this course will at once remove inflammation and ulceration. The worst cases will yield to this treatment by following the printed directions.

Scrofula or King's Evil and Swelling of the Glands.
This class of cases may be cured by Holloway's purifying Pills and Ointment, as their double action of purifying the blood and strengthening the system renders them more suitable than any other remedy for all complaints of a scrofulous nature. As the blood is impure the liver, stomach and bowels, being much deranged, require purifying medicine to bring about a cure.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:
Bad Legs. Chapped Hands. Scalds.
Bad Breasts. Contracted and Sore Nipples.
Burns. Stiff Joints. Sore Throats.
Bunions. Elephantiasis. Skin-diseases.
Bite of Mosquitoes. Fistulas. Scurvy.
and Sand-Flies. Gout. Sore-heads.
Coco-bay. Glandular Swellings. Tumors.
Chiefo-foot. Lumbago. Ulcers.
Corns (soft). Wounds.
Cancri. Piles. Yaws.
Chilblains. Rheumatism.
